

The diagram shows a rectangular layout divided into four vertical sections by three vertical lines. The outermost sections are wider than the inner two. A horizontal line with arrows at both ends runs across the middle. Diagonal arrows point from the top center towards the corners. A horizontal arrow with a vertical line segment at its center is located below the fold line text. The text is color-coded: red for the cut line, blue for the safety line, and green for the fold lines. The background has a faint, large, light-gray watermark that reads 'PRINTED ON DEMAND'.
